

HAIN CELESTIAL TO CREATE 65 NEW JOBS IN NORFOLK

Fakenham, England, November 7, 2007—The Hain Celestial, Group, Inc., a leading natural and organic food and personal care products company, and owner of the Fakenham facility, which produces the Linda McCartney® and other meat-alternative products, is to create at least 65 new jobs in the area - doubling the number of production staff at the factory in the process.

The 65 new positions will be focused within production at the factory which produces Linda McCartney meat-free meals, and will be available in both four and eight hour shifts, meaning a maximum of 130 new people can be recruited.

Since acquiring the Linda McCartney brand in 2006, Hain Celestial has relaunched the range with new and improved recipes, new lines and more sophisticated packaging. The announcement of new jobs is testament to the ongoing success of the re-launch as Hain Celestial continues to develop the meat-free market in the UK.

Graham Trevor, Head of HR for Hain Celestial UK comments, “The fact that we have been able to create these new positions is great news for the local economy, and demonstrates our commitment to Fakenham. It also reflects our confidence in the future of the Linda McCartney brand.”

Hain Celestial UK is based in Luton, with the headquarters of The Hain Celestial Group, Inc. in New York. The company manufactures, markets, distributes and sells natural and organic food and personal care products. Hain Celestial intends to grow its profile in the UK by introducing new products into the UK market, including new product development within the Linda McCartney range in 2008.

The new roles will be advertised in local media, and members of the public who are interested in applying can either telephone 01382 777500, or visit the factory reception at Holt Road in Fakenham.
